Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The Black Hills Home Builders Association serves as an advocate for those involved in the building industry and focuses its efforts on creating an environment that provides the opportunity of home ownership for all; and,

Whereas, The Black Hills Home Builders Association represents builders who are involved in residential and commercial construction, remodeling, land development and property management, as well as subcontractors, suppliers, lenders and others in the service industry; and,

Whereas, The Black Hills Home Builders Association seeks to be the recognized authority for the home building industry to those in government and regulatory agencies, as well as the general public, to be the desired trade association for membership by those connected with the building industry, and to be the recognized information/education source by members of the industry, government and the public; and,

Whereas, A very distinguished Black Hills Home Builders Association member, Wayne Loof, will be honored for his dedication to quality and excellence, community involvement and volunteer efforts on behalf of the association on February 15, 2007, at the Alex Johnson Hotel Ballroom at Rapid City, South Dakota:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 15, 2007, as in South Dakota.

WAYNE LOOF DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State